

Noah Dasanaïke

Department of Government, Harvard University
noahdasanaïke@college.harvard.edu — noahdasanaïke.github.io

Education

Ph.D., Government, Harvard University, 2022 —

- Carl J. Friedrich Fellow
- Fields: Comparative Politics, Quantitative Methodology

A.B., Government, Harvard University, 2022

Publications

- Businessperson Deputies and Party Cohesion: Evidence from the Russian State Duma. 2021. Party Politics. doi.org/10.1177/13540688211025176.

Working Papers

- Historical Regional Identity and National Populism in Sweden and Finland. Under Review.
- Nation-Building, Differential Historical Governance, and Latent Out-Groups: Evidence from the Swiss Cantons
- Small-Area Estimation Using Gaussian Process Grouped IRT Regression and Post-Stratification (with Jacob Montgomery, Bryant Moy, and Santiago Olivella)

Research in Progress

- “Fuzzy” Fixed Effects for Spatial Estimation
- Persistence of Political Opportunity Structures and the Russian Potato Riots (with Sarah Hummel)

Presentations

- Saint Louis Area Methods Meeting, 2021

Grants and Fellowships

- Harvard Graduate Prize Fellowship, 2022-24
- Harvard Center for European Studies Research Grant, 2022-23 ($2,500)
- Fulbright Fellowship, University of Bergen, Norway, 2022 (Declined)
- Harvard Center for European Studies Thesis Grant, 2021 ($2,500)

Teaching Experience

- Gov 50: Data (Undergraduate), Course Assistant for Prof. Adeline Lo, 2022

Research Assistance

- Gary Marks (UNC, 2020-21), Melani Cammett (Harvard, 2020-21), Rafaela Dancygier (Princeton, 2021), Kenneth Benoit (LSE, 2021), Santiago Olivella (2020-), Grzegorz Ekiert (Harvard, 2021-), Vicky Fouka (Stanford, 2022-)

Skills

Software: ArcGIS, Qualtrics

Programming: R, Python, C/C++/Rcpp, Stata, SQL, MATLAB

Languages: English (Native), French (Basic)